Fast access to an extensive parts inventory

Aerospace Trading offers flexible airframe trading solutions enabling customers to manage their airframe parts and gain operational efficiency.

Aerospace Trading buy and sell a wide range of Thales and non-Thales equipment referenced in various ATA Chapters. We maintain an inventory of thousands of components ready to ship anywhere within a few hours and takes care of the environment by recycling used items.

Thales parts are fully compliant and certified to OEM maintenance and quality standards, and come with comprehensive warranties at competitive market prices.
