Data Protection Statement for the Use of this Website

We consider data protection to be very important. We are therefore committed to maintaining your right to the protection of your personal data.

Both the protection of privacy and the protection of our website users are particularly important for us. We would like to tell you how we have made sure that your data is protected online:

Basic principles

Basically, you can use the website without having to register as a user. No software or hardware technology is used to capture the e-mail addresses or other personal data of users.

Log file

Every time you access a page on our website and every time you call up a file, access data for this process is stored on a log file on our server.

Every data set consists of the following:

- ② the page from which the file was requested
- ② the name of the file
- ② the date and time of the request
- ② the volume of data transmitted
- ② the access status (file transferred, file not found, etc.)
- ② a description of the type of web browser used

- ② the IP address which was assigned to you by your provider, if this is necessary for technical operation.

The saved data is evaluated completely anonymously for statistical purposes.

Handling of personal data

Personal data is only collected if you expressly provide us with it. If you provide us with this data, it will only be used for the purpose for which you provided it. If, for example, you provide us with your name, your e-mail address or other personal data, the data will always be treated as confidential.

If the declaration of agreement for the above purposes also includes forwarding your data to companies within the Group, your data may be forwarded to these companies.

You can withdraw your agreement to the processing of your personal data at any time. We will then take all the necessary steps to ensure that your request is met. At the same time, we will inform you once everything has been deleted.

Personal data is only forwarded to third parties with your express permission or in accordance with the provisions of the law.

You have the right to be sent information about the personal data stored about you, upon request and free of charge. In addition, within the provisions of the law, you have a right to correct, block and delete this personal data.

Cookies

To be able to use the full navigational functions, you have to activate Javascript and allow the use of cookies. No analysis of user preferences is carried out here, not even on an anonymous basis.

Amendment of the Data Protection Statement

This data protection statement (Privacy Policy) may be subject to change, because of changes in the law, for example. We would therefore ask you to read this page through regularly.

Thales Germany Ethics Code

In its Ethics Code Thales Germany has committed itself towards its customers and suppliers. Thales Germany builds long-lasting relationships with its customers and suppliers, which are based on mutual trust and respect.

As our partners customers and suppliers have the right to expect from Thales Germany a cordially and honest information policy and compliance with its commitments.
