1 GENERAL

1.1 These General Sales Terms and Conditions shall apply to products and services (the "Products") manufactured and/or provided by Thales DIS (Malaysia) Sdn. Bhd., a company organized and existing under the laws of Malaysia (hereafter "THALES") to a customer (the "Buyer"). THALES and Buyer are hereinafter individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties". Any proposal of whatsoever form (the "Proposal") made by THALES to the Buyer for its Products shall be governed by these General Sales Terms and Conditions which, unless expressly otherwise agreed in writing, shall prevail in the event of a discrepancy with any other written or oral agreement between THALES and the Buyer.

1.2 The Proposal, including, without limitation, commercial, technical and financial documents sent to the Buyer together with these General Sales Terms and Conditions, shall be valid for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of its issuance, unless extended by THALES by written notice to the Buyer.

1.3 The Buyer's written acceptance of the Proposal and/or the placement of an order in writing by the Buyer (the "Order") shall be deemed the Buyer's unconditional and irrevocable agreement to these General Sales Terms and Conditions and the waiver of the Buyer's own purchase terms and conditions or any other similar document.

1.4 The Proposal may be subject toalteration and withdrawal by written notice of THALES to the Buyer at any time until a contract arising therefrom (the "Contract") has been executed in writing by the Buyer’s and THALES’ duly empowered representatives.

1.5 If the Buyer accepts the Proposal with additions, modifications, qualifications or assumptions, such acceptance shall be considered a new offer by the Buyer. Any such new offer shall only be binding upon THALES if and to the extent it is accepted in writing by THALES. Whether the Order was preceded or not by a Proposal, the Contract shall not be deemed binding unless the Buyer has received written acceptance of the Order from THALES, both concerning the Order, and where applicable, the additions, modifications, qualifications or assumptions thereto (the "Order Acceptance"). In the event of a discrepancy between the Order and the Order Acceptance, the Order Acceptance shall prevail and determine the terms of the Contract. No Order may be canceled or modified after the date of issuance of the Order Acceptance, except with the prior written approval of THALES and provided that all costs resulting there from shall be borne by the Buyer.

1.6 The Contract shall consist of:
   • an agreement signed by both Parties and/or the Order and its Order Acceptance agreed upon by both Parties, including, as the case may be, any complementary specific and/or special conditions of sale;
   • these General Sales Terms and Conditions, which form an integral part of the Contract.

1.7 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings (whether oral, in writing or any other form) between the Parties.

2 DOCUMENTATION

2.1 The weight, dimensions, size, performance and other documentation relating to the Products provided for in the technical or commercial documentation (the "Documentation") of THALES are of an indicative nature only and are not contractually binding unless expressly indicated so by THALES in the Order Acceptance and/or provided in the Contract.

2.2 The Documentation provided to the Buyer remains the exclusive property of THALES and may not be communicated, copied or reproduced by the Buyer without the prior written authorization of THALES.

2.3 Subject to the terms of the Contract, the Buyer is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-assignable right to use the Documentation. The Buyer agrees to limit access to the Documentation to those employees who require such access in order to use the Products. The Buyer will not make available or disclose any information concerning the Documentation to any other person without the prior written consent of THALES. The obligations expressed in this provision shall remain binding upon the Buyer even after completion or termination of the Contract. 9.1 THALES hereby warrants the Products to be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use and service according to all hardware and/or software specifications related to the Product, authored and provided by THALES, for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of delivery. Under no circumstances, shall THALES be held liable for any third party actions or claims and, in particular, in case of any successful attack against systems or equipments incorporating the Products. Buyer is deemed to have provided and is responsible for all designs, plans, data (e.g., personalization data), electronic security mechanisms and architecture, and specifications with respect to Products (collectively, "Designs"). Buyer represents and warrants that by placing an order for the Products (a) it relies on its own knowledge and judgment in the selection and use of the Products as well as the electronic security mechanism and/or architecture installed in the Products, and (b) it has read, understood and accepted the electronic security mechanisms and/or architecture offered by the Products. THALES shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever with respect to failure of, or attack on the electronic security mechanisms and/or architecture of the Products.

10. LIABILITY

10.1 To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law and with respect to any damages, losses or costs arising out of or related to the Contract, THALES or its suppliers, agents or distributors shall not be, in any case whatsoever, liable to the Buyer, its officers, agents, employees, successors and/or assignees for any indirect, special, consequential or incidental damages of whatsoever kind or nature, nor for any loss, cost, damage, loss of revenue, loss of profit, income, revenue, loss of use, production or anticipated savings, loss of business, contracts or commercial opportunities, loss or damage to goodwill or reputation, or any loss or corruption of any data, database or software incurred or suffered by the Buyer and/or any third party resulting from a defect, infringement or alleged infringement, an incident, the failure of the Products or any failure to perform according to the Contract even if THALES has been advised of the possibility of such damages; losses or costs. The Buyer shall defend, indemnify, and hold THALES harmless from and against any claim based on any such damages, losses or costs.

Under no circumstances shall THALES be liable to the Buyer for any damages, losses or costs resulting from or arising out of any illegal and/or fraudulent use of the Products by the Buyer, any third party or the end-user.

Any action against THALES must be brought within no later than twelve (12) months after the cause of action arises.

10.2 The aggregate liability of THALES or its suppliers, agents or distributors in connection therewith shall not exceed either (i) the price of the Order giving rise to the claim or (ii) the total price actually paid to THALES under the Contract during the six (6) months preceding the event leading to the claim for damages by the Buyer, whichever is smaller. This limitation of liability shall apply regardless of the form of action, whether in contract or in tort (including negligence) or based on a warrant.

10.3 Buyer acknowledges that using or selling Products in devices or systems where malfunction may result in personal injury, death, damage to property or the environment is at its own risk and agrees to indemnify and hold THALES harmless from all loss, expense and damages (including reasonable attorney's fees) which may be incurred by THALES as a result of any claims or actions resulting from damages caused by the use of the Product in such devices or systems by Buyer or any party to whom the Buyer has directly or indirectly supplied the Product.
11. FORCE MAJEURE

11.1 Neither Party shall be liable or responsible for any failure or any delay to fulfill any of its obligation hereunder, nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Contract, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any term of this Contract (except for any obligations to make payments to the other Party under this Contract) for the duration of such Force Majeure Event and for 90 days thereafter, when and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from a Force Majeure Event.

11.2 The Party experiencing a Force Majeure event shall promptly notify the other Party of the inability to perform its obligations under this Contract resulting from Force Majeure (“Force Majeure Declaration”). If, as a result of Force Majeure, the performance by either Party of its obligations under this Contract is only partially affected, such Party shall nevertheless remain liable for the performance of those obligations not affected by Force Majeure.

11.3 If Force Majeure continues for a period of more than ninety (90) consecutive calendar days from the date of the Force Majeure Declaration and has prevented either of the Parties from performing its obligations in whole or in part during that period, then the other Party shall be entitled to terminate the Contract either in whole or in part forthwith by written notice to such Party. The notice to terminate must specify the termination date, which must be not less than thirty (30) days after the date on which the notice to terminate is given. Once a notice to terminate has been validly given, this Contract will terminate on the termination date set out in the notice. Each Party shall bear its own costs incurred by the Force Majeure.

11.4 “Force Majeure” means acts beyond the affected Party’s reasonable control, including, without limitation: acts of God, fire, flood, earthquake, windstorm or other natural disaster, war, threat of or preparation for war, armed conflict, imposition of sanctions, embargo, breaking off of diplomatic relations or similar actions; terrorist attack, civil war, civil commotion or riots, border or customs closure; nuclear, chemical or biological contamination or sonic boom; epidemic or pandemic; voluntary or mandatory compliance with any law (including a failure to grant any license or consent needed or any change in the law or interpretation of the law); explosion or accidental damage; extreme adverse weather conditions, sonic boom and meteor shower; collapse of building structures, failure of plant machinery, machinery, computers or vehicles; any labor dispute, including but not limited to strikes, industrial action or lockouts; non-performance by suppliers or subcontractors (other than by companies in the same group as the party seeking to rely on this clause); and interruption or failure of utility service, including but not limited to electric power, gas or water.

12. EXPORT CONTROL

12.1 Should the Products be subject to export restrictions, the Buyer hereby undertakes to fully comply with all relevant export administration and control laws and regulations so as to ensure that the Products are not, directly or indirectly, exported in violation of the applicable foreign law. Buyer shall therefore not sell, lend or deliver to any third party, under any conditions whatsoever, with or without compensation, temporarily or permanently, the Products (including supplies and spares delivered in connection with the after sales support), documentation, operating manuals and information in any way whatsoever related to the Products, without the prior written consent of THALES and/or the relevant competent authorities.

12.2 The Parties acknowledge that the subject matter of the Contract may fall within the scope of the provisions set forth by the Wassenaar Arrangements or any successor, substitute or additional body regulating sensitive technologies. Should performance of the Contract legally be prevented by the regulators of the Wassenaar Arrangements or any such other body, such prevention shall be considered as a case of Force Majeure. THALES shall not be liable to Buyer for any damages resulting from the non-performance of the Contract as a result of the application of any such provisions.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, CONFIDENTIALITY AND INFRINGEMENT

13.1 The information and data (hereafter the “Information”) contained in any document or support of information supplied by THALES under the Proposal or the Contract shall remain THALES’s exclusive property along with all intellectual property rights (including but not limited to patent rights, copyrights, trademarks, designs) attached thereto. Therefore, no right, title or interest is transferred to the Buyer by the Contract in the names, trademarks, trade secrets, patents, pending patents, expertise, copyright and other intellectual property rights relating to the Products. In particular, to the extent that software is embedded in a Product, the sale of such Product shall not constitute the transfer of ownership rights or title in such software to Buyer, but, subject to the provisions set forth herein, shall only imply a non-exclusive and non-transferable license to Buyer under THALES’s intellectual property rights incorporated in the Products to use such software in conjunction with and as embedded in the Products supplied by THALES or as directed by THALES.

Except as provided in this Article 13, the Buyer shall not be granted any license, either directly or indirectly, by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, to any patent, trade secret, copyright and/or any other intellectual property right of THALES. The Buyer shall not make any use of the Information other than for the purpose of the Contract or, as the case may be, installing, operating and/or maintaining the Products. THALES retains and shall retain full ownership of all inventions, designs and processes made prior to or during the course of performance of any Contract resulting therefrom.

13.2 The Buyer shall keep the Information in strict confidence and shall not disclose any of the Information to any other person than the Buyer's employees who need to know such Information for the purposes stated in sub-Article 13.1. Any other disclosure shall be subject to THALES’s prior written approval.

13.3 Subject to Article 10, THALES shall indemnify the Buyer against any and all claims, costs, expenses or liability directly arising out of the alleged infringement or infringement of intellectual property rights in the Buyer’s country as a consequence of the use by the Buyer of the Products in accordance with their technical specifications, provided that the Buyer shall promptly notify THALES in writing of any claim, that no claim may be made after a period of three (3) years from the date of delivery of the Product giving rise to the claim, that the Buyer shall provide all information and assistance required by THALES concerning the claim, that the Buyer shall give THALES the opportunity to defend and settle under the responsibility of THALES any claim in this respect and that the Buyer shall refrain from making any admission, declaration or arrangement with the third party raising such claims.

The foregoing obligation to indemnify the Buyer shall not apply to THALES for Products for which THALES has not obtained a similar warranty from its supplier(s) and shall not apply either to THALES for any alleged infringement or infringement that is due to or based upon (a) the association or combination of the Products with any other article, software, hardware, apparatus or device, and/or (b) any alteration or modification of the Products which is not made by THALES or which is based upon a design supplied by the Buyer.
13.4 Should a court or an arbitrator finally establish that there has been an intellectual property infringement or should THALES consider that the Products could be the subject of a claim or suit for intellectual property infringement, THALES may choose, at its option, either:
- to obtain the right for the Buyer to continue using the Products, and/or
- to substitute equivalent products for the infringing Products, and/or
- to modify infringing Products so as to eliminate the infringement.

13.5 The foregoing states the entire liability and warranty of THALES with respect to the infringement of any patent, copyright, trademark or trade secret or of any intellectual property right by the Products or any part thereof.

13.6 The Buyer on its part warrants that any design and/or instructions furnished or given by it shall not be such as will cause THALES to infringe any intellectual property rights in the performance of the Contract. The Buyer shall, in this respect, hold harmless and protect THALES in the same way as provided under sub-Articles 13.3 and 13.4.

14. DATA PROTECTION (as may be applicable)

14.1 The parties shall comply with their respective obligations under data protection regulations (including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and European Regulation 2016/679 relating to the processing of Personal Data (GDPR)) that apply in the context of the performance of this Contract.

With respect to the personal data made available by the Buyer to THALES under the Contract, the Buyer shall act as a data controller and THALES shall process personal data only on behalf of the Buyer. Acting as data processor, THALES shall be processing the Buyer personal data according to the Buyer documented instructions as further described in the Orders and for no other purposes than the ones expressly defined and approved by the Buyer, unless required to do so by the laws to which THALES is subject. In such a case, THALES shall inform the Buyer of that legal requirement before processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest.

THALES shall ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures designed to ensure an appropriate level of security of the Buyer personal data in accordance with Article 32 of the GDPR.

If relevant, the Parties mutually agree on a form describing the processing activities under the template provided by THALES.

In addition, THALES shall:

- make available to Buyer, at Buyer’s costs, all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations set out in Article 28 of the GDPR and, upon two (2) weeks prior advance notice to THALES, allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by THALES or another auditor mandated by Buyer;
- considering the nature of the processing activities and the information available to THALES, assist Buyer, at Buyer’s costs, in ensuring compliance with the obligations as set out in Articles 32 to 36 of the GDPR;
- at the end of the Contract, THALES shall, at the choice of Buyer, delete or return to Buyer all Buyer personal data and destroy existing copies unless otherwise required by applicable laws;
- where applicable under the GDPR, not transfer Buyer personal data out of the European Economic Area without Buyer prior express consent; and
- notify Buyer without undue delay after becoming aware of a personal data breach.

Buyer hereby gives a general authorisation to THALES to share Buyer personal data with sub-processors, it being understood that THALES shall inform Buyer of any changes of sub-processors, thereby giving Buyer the opportunity to object to such changes in writing, for legitimate reasons and within thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of THALES’ notice. THALES shall remain fully liable to Buyer for the performance of the sub-processors’ obligations.

Non-compliance by the Buyer with the above-mentioned obligations may lead to the application of criminal sanctions, as laid down in the applicable national transposition legislation and/or regulations.

16. ANTI-CORRUPTION, INFLUENCE PEDDLING AND INTEGRITY AND CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY CHARTER

16.4 The Buyer declares to have implemented a compliance program that meets the requirements of the Sapin II Law, insofar as the Buyer is subject to this requirement.

16.5 Any violation by the Buyer of any provision of this Clause 16 shall be deemed a material breach of its contractual obligations, entitling THALES either to suspend the contract performance as long as the breach is not satisfactorily remedied or to terminate this Contract and/or any ongoing agreement immediately and without prejudice to any other remedy for which it may be entitled under contractual and/or legal provisions.
